

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
COUNTY OF GRANVILLE

IN THE GENERAL COURT OF JUSTICE
SUPERIOR COURT DIVISION
19CRS 417

v.

INDICTMENT- I. FELONY OBSTRUCTION OF JUSTICE

BRINDELL WILKINS

I. The jurors for the State upon their oath present that on or about August 12, 2014 in Granville County the defendant named above unlawfully, willfully, and feloniously and done in secrecy and malice, with deceit and intent to defraud, and in his official capacity as the elected Sheriff of Granville County, sworn to agreeably uphold the criminal laws of the State for the benefit and safety of the people of Granville County, did obstruct public and legal justice by withholding knowledge of a credible threat made by an individual known to the Sheriff to imminently kill Joshua Freeman at a certain place and time in Granville County, and by failing to take appropriate law enforcement action as the Sheriff of Granville County charged with the duty of detecting violations of the criminal laws, investigating those violations and enforcing the criminal laws within his jurisdiction.

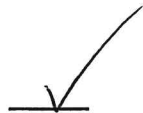

The defendant failed to make reasonable and professional efforts to help prevent harm to victim Joshua Freeman, including failing to immediately warn Joshua Freeman of the credible threat, failing to offer law enforcement assistance to Joshua Freeman to help protect his life, failing to seize a readily available firearm threatened to be used to conduct the killing and displayed to the defendant at said time, failing to lawfully detain the individual for further investigation or failing to effectuate an arrest of this individual.

The defendant failed to properly execute his duties because of his personal animosity towards Joshua Freeman, who defendant was told had expressed an intention to publicly disclose to authorities a purported audio recording of the defendant using racially offensive language.

This act was done in violation of the Common Law and punishable pursuant to N.C.G.S. 14-3(b).

You can’t tell nobody nothin’, not a thing”, and provided assurances to the individual that the defendant would not reveal to any investigation authorities, contemplated to be the Granville County Sheriff’s Office investigators due to the discussed time and location of where the murder might successfully occur, any prior knowledge defendant had as to the individual’s expressed intention to kill Joshua Freeman.

This act was done in violation of the Common Law and punishable pursuant to N.C.G.S.
